Book review: Katherine Webb's "A Half Forgotten Song"

A Half Forgotten Song Katherine Webb William Morrow Paperbacks Paperback 496 pages May 2013. With most of her action unfolding in Devon and later sections in Fez, Morocco, Webb so cleverly melds modern-day England to the search for the lost works of an artist that the lessons of loyalty--and one family--extend far beyond the generations. Without losing any of her talent for writing lovely
