When you kiss someone, kiss them with both hands, kiss them like you are holding on tight and won't let go. Lean in for the kiss like you are both in a musical and the score is swirling around you as if your dress or her dress or both of your dresses will be blown up by the wind at any moment. Pretend you are like people who are holding each other after a long war is over and peace has been declared and you are being photographed in black and white. Kiss them like it's going to be
