The European Co-operation in Science and Technology Research Network supported European research on learning to write effectively from 2008 to 2011. This book outlines the results with eight editors presenting over ninety contributions from people in a dozen or more European countries. There are four sections: writing development; learning and teaching writing; document design; and tools for studying writing. Thus the coverage is broad, but thin. It's probably best to order this text for
