Mary, Mary by Julie Parsons - Goodreads

Mary, Mary eh? This is the second Mary, Mary I've read this year, the first being the more well-known James Patterson novel. Both crime/thrillers, this particular one severely lacked the thrilling part of that pair.

"Mary, Mary" sounded interesting and on the basis of my appreciation of "Eager to Please," I was really looking forward to reading Ms. Parsons' debut novel. The story begins with the torture, rape and murder of Mary, a 20-year old woman temporarily living in Dublin.

MARY, MARY by Julie Parsons | Kirkus Reviews

Britisher Parsons's harrowing first novel traces the aftermath of a brutal sex killing. The bare bones of the story couldn't be simpler. Mary Mitchell and her single mother, newly arrived in Dublin from a long residence in New Zealand, have few friends in the area, even though Margaret Mitchell grew up there before taking her M.D. in psychiatry.
