Practicing democracy : local activism and politics ... - Trove

Trove: Find and get Australian resources. Books, images, historic newspapers, maps, archives and more. This book is about the mundane, local, every day practices that constitutes democracy. It defines politicization as the key process in understanding democracy in different cultural contexts through studies of France and Finland. By means of comparative ethnographic, media, and visual analysis. Practicing Democracy - Local Activism and Politics in ...

Luhtakallio carefully excavates the historical, institutional and cultural differences between one nation's practices of democracy and another's, without becoming mired in a swamp of detail, and without reifying the 'culture' of the nations being compared. Its extraordinarily useful and innovative combination of ethnographic, visual, and interview-based research methods, exceptionally clear theory, and a lively writing style make this into a book that non-specialists will enjoy and
