Prince \(John Shakespeare, #3\) by Rory Clements
Prince is the third book in the John Shakespeare series by Rory Clements and, once again, he has crafted a marvellous tale that takes the reader by the scruff of the neck (or scruff of the ruff) and plonks her or him right down in the middle of Elizabethan England.

I discovered Rory Clements somewhat by accident while waiting for the next Shardlake story and have been quite taken with his work. I really enjoyed his first two novels (Martyr and Revenge) and couldn't wait for The Prince to be available on Kindle. Like the other two books, The Prince is introducing me to a whole new (archaic?) English! The history, the people, the events are historically John Shakespeare: Prince by Rory Clements - The Bookbag

This is the third in the excellent Elizabethan murder mystery series, featuring John Shakespeare, brother of Will. An inexplicable murder is linked to a much deeper plot of political dimensions, leading Shakespeare into danger and tragedy.
