Rome Burning is the sequel to Sophia McDougall's debut novel, Romanitas, and the middle book of the Romanitas Trilogy (which concludes with Savage City). The premise of the trilogy is straightforward: the Roman Empire never fell and, by the present day, has gone on to conquer most of the world. However, the Empire is still built on the back of capital punishment, slavery and the occupation of New Releases: Rome Burning by Sophia McDougall
The sequel to Romanitas, Rome Burning returns to Sophia McDougall's world in which the Roman Empire never fell. Romanitas is a very focused story - a geographically-limited footrace for personal survival on the part of its protagonists.

Sophia McDougall | Writer and critic

"Sophia McDougall is a great writer, who can do grim alternate history and bouncy YA sci-fi adventure with equal aplomb. She's almost certainly going to do something amazing again soon.

Sophia McDougall | AustCrimeFiction

ROME BURNING is the second in the ROMANITAS
trilogy, based in a Roman Empire that still exists today.
This version of the Empire is a mix of the ancient traditions and stylings, alongside technology which bears
some, limited, resemblance to current day.
