Seconds by David Ely - Goodreads

Originally released in 1963, and made into a movie starring Rock Hudson in 1966, David Ely's short science fiction book has been rereleased in 2013, and feels destined to be remade into a scifi summer blockbuster. While at times the novel feels very dated, there are many themes in the book that resonate with today's reader and everything going on in the world.

Seconds is a story from the 1960s and it is very much of its time. There was a literary movement that believed that middle class life was dull and unfulfilling. Women were, of course, just part of the furniture. Children came and went from a man's life as little more than temporary responsibilities. If you're a fan of Kafka you might enjoy it.

Authors : Ely, David : SFE : Science Fiction Encyclopedia

The protagonist of Ely's second sf novel, A Journal of the Flood Year (1992), discovers that a huge wall designed to reclaim part of the American continental shelf from the Atlantic has begun to leak in this rigidly stratified Near Future world of which the wall is a potently rendered symbol and his attempt to warn the government of the oncoming and inevitable Disaster prompts nothing
