Shadow Child by Libby Purves - goodreads.com
As ever with Libby Purves, this is a book about difficult emotions that still manages to leave you feeling that there is always hope and a future. Some parts, especially early on, where she describes a mother's grief, were very hard to read, knowing that she had lost an adult child of her own. This isn't mentioned on any of the blurb and I wondered if she has requested that that be the case.

Libby Purves's son killed himself ... and her new ...

Libby Purves is leaving no wiggle-room for doubt. The author and broadcaster is reminding me, again, that the book she has written, Shadow Child, is not the story of the loss of her son, Nicholas.
