Amazon.com: Books

Testimony is a story about the dangers of alcohol among high school students, leading to premature sex, and other life-altering consequences. There is so much more, like the consequences of one's actions in general, but without being preachy the book forces one to think and look back at one's life, and look forward to protecting one's children.

Description: Testimony : a novel / Anita Shreve.

Anita Shreve grew up in Dedham, Massachusetts. After receiving a bachelor's degree in English from Tufts University, she taught high school English for five years before becoming a full-time author. She worked for an English-language magazine in Nairobi and wrote for everything from Cosmopolitan magazine to The New York Times. Her nonfiction books included Remaking Motherhood and Women.
