Wiley: The Good Representative - Suzanne Dovi

"The Good Representative is an important contribution to the burgeoning literature on political representation, and one that speaks directly to a wide range of debates within democratic theory and professional ethics as well. Relying on an original application of Aristotelian functionalism to political representation, Dovi argues that good representatives should be fair minded, build trust

Wiley: The Good Representative - Suzanne Dovi

The Good Representative is a real service not just to the scholarly community but to general readers and ordinary citizens. Dovi puts forth clear criteria for judging those who aspire to speak in our name and defends them with vigor and clarity but always in just the civil and inclusive tone that she calls for in politicians.
