They live in the attics of a great country house which his father looks after, and every year around Lammas Day, August 1st, a big festival is held in the grounds, with musicians and storytellers and many other people, including Mick's friend Lizzie, and this year, a strange woman called Rowan. Rowan promises Mick the gift of being able to play any sort of music, brilliantly, but of course there is a price he has to pay. A terrible one. Extract from The Lammas Field - Catherine Fisher
