The Scrivener's Tale by Fiona McIntosh - Goodreads
The Scrivener's Tale is a return to the world Fiona McIntosh first wrote about in her Quickening series, set several hundred years later. When I first heard about this book and realised it was a stand-alone story in a previously created world, I was assured that I didn't need to read the previous series to know what was going on.

REVIEW: THE SCRIVENER'S TALE BY FIONA MCINTOSH

SCRIVENER S TALE, THE Author: Fiona McIntosh Voyager RRP $32.99 Review: Monique Mulligan. I tend not to read a lot of fantasy books, but after reading The Lavender Keeper and being captivated by Fiona McIntosh's superb storytelling, I had to give The Scrivener's Tale a go.

Fiona McIntosh

One of the key elements in the story of The Scrivener's Tale is a quill. It erupted into the story because I was talking about scribes and their role in medieval times.

Paris and Pearlis | Fiona McIntosh

Paris and Pearlis. These are my two major cities in The Scrivener's Tale. Fantasy stories don't just come in series simply out of habit; for the most part these tales are epic in scale with big stakes and a big cast that require some room to move and develop worlds with all their history, culture, social set up, architecture.
