In medieval folk lore, if a warlock can take out the heart of his victim before death, and the victim does not die in a state of grace, the warlock can call upon that soul to do his bidding. In 1562, Queen Elizabeth has been on the throne for four years and the Protestant faith has been reaffirmed.

This is my second read of the Soul Slayer, I first read and very much enjoyed it 10 years ago. Is it still good, well, yes! Doherty knows how to make you feel a sense of time and place. He conjures up a believable medieval world in which he weaves subtle powers of the darkness. This novel had a certain epic feel to it than most of Doherty's medieval books.
