Trinity Rising (The Wild Hunt, #2) by Elspeth Cooper
Trinity Rising is the second book in a quartet by Elspeth Cooper that began with Songs of the Earth. Songs of the Earth was nominated for a Morningstar Award, which celebrate[s] the newcomers to the fantasy genre, whose first book published in English. I reviewed Songs of the Earth; if you haven't read Songs I recommend

Trinity Rising by Elspeth Cooper The Wild Hunt, a review by Ant, in the genre(s) Fantasy. Book published by Gollancz in July 2012. When we left Gair at the end of the spectacular novel Songs of the Earth there had been a pretty big shock. Rather than start where the story left off, Trinity Rising instead follows Teia, a Cooper, Elspeth: Trinity Rising (2012) |

I have just been made aware of the difference in the usage of serials and series. The Wild Hunt is a serial. This means that each book ends without the story being finished. I admit it. I hesitated to read Trinity Rising. No way could Elspeth Cooper live up to the promise of her first Trinity Rising by Elspeth Cooper Fantasy-Faction However, Trinity Rising is a case of someone moving chess pieces around on a board. We all know it's going to end big in book four (and I have absolute faith in Cooper to deliver) but here we see the initial set up and not much else.

The Wild Hunt Quartet Elspeth Cooper

Trinity Rising a book that had me connect with its characters so strongly that I would actually get mad at them and talk to my book A Fantastical Librarian. The future holds nothing but blood and death . . . and Teia fears there is nothing she can do about it.

Elspeth Cooper Purveyor of fine fantasy adventures

Elspeth Cooper is a British fantasy writer, author of The Wild Hunt Quartet. Sword owner. Tea drinker. Cat slave. Tsundoku master. Clear & present danger to chocolate.

Trinity Rising by Elspeth Cooper book review

Trinity Rising is definitely a step up for Cooper, which is hopefully more a comment on just how good this book is rather than any criticism about her previous efforts. The use of magic, the threat and peril, and the characters in these novels are worth your time, and will bring you much joy in the reading.
