Local myths in a global work: Merlinda Bobis' 'White Turtle'

Local myths in a global work: Merlinda Bobis' 'White Turtle' Abstract If only we all had porous bones, and thinner skin, when listening to a tale. Such is one token offered by Merlinda Bobis' prismatic short story, 'White Turtle', which harnesses the uncanny in an intercultural meeting of the earl and tongue.² 'White Turtle' is a story inside a story; as Bobis character, the 'White Turtle' by Merlinda Bobis - epcabrisbane.org Merlinda Bobis is a superb storyteller. She can take you into the precious intimacies of her characters with such ease that you are left breathless by the rhythm, the motion, the prevailing currents with which you've entered the mood of the tale. Like the old woman in the title story of this collection who sings her chant and calls up the white turtle from the sea to join the guests of a
